School chef bids for trophy 'pot' in cook-off final

A SCHOOL chef is in the final of a nationwide cooking competition.

Lisa Morris, cook supervisor at Manor Longbridge Primary School, in Scholars Way, Dagenham, has successfully advanced to the national final of the McCain Foods Simply One Pot Meal contest.

Her tangy Moroccan turkey tagine dish helped her secure a place where she has been selected as one of five finalists to compete in a cook-off at the end of the month.

Councillor Evelyn Carpenter, Barking and Dagenham

Council's cabinet member for education and schools, said: "My congratulations to Lisa for making it to the finals and I look forward to tasting her unique dish."

"Our school cooks are committed to providing nutritious meals and encouraging healthy eating in schools. Lisa is an excellent example of the calibre of creative and talented staff we have working in our school kitchens."

The contest challenged all local authority schools to show off their creativity in the kitchen by creating a tasty dish that can be cooked in just one pot.

School cooks were invited to create a recipe using the McCain Simply range of potato products. The dish had to also be compliant with the school food standards and cost no more than 80p per portion.

Lisa said: "I'm overwhelmed, I cannot believe I have made it through to the national final of such a high profile competition. I am extremely proud to represent both my school."

"I tested my sweet and spicy turkey tagine recipe on both students and staff at Manor Longbridge."

The winning cook will receive a culinary trip for two to Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall's River Cottage HQ and their recipe will be published in a series of recipe sheets, along with the other finalists' dishes.

SALUTE TO THE FALLEN

A FORMER manor house, with a history dating back to the 13th century, is to play host to an anniversary event commemorating VE Day.

Dagenham's Valence House Museum will stage an Armed Forces Day spectacular this Friday – 70 years to the day after the guns fell silent across the European theatre of war.

The exhibition is part of an eight week-long series of events marking the end of the Second World War in Europe.

A short remembrance service will be held at the Job Drain VC statue in front of the Broadway Theatre, Barking at 3pm when a two-minute silence will be observed.

Museum to stage victory parade attend, and should gather at the statue 10 minutes before the 3pm start time.

Also taking place to mark VE Day is a Collections Masterclass on Thursday at the museum.

This is an opportunity to see a range of material on Barking and Dagenham in World War Two – bomb damage reports, local bomb maps, reminiscences, Air Raid Precaution log books and evacuation of children.

A coffee morning will be held in the Barking Learning Centre from 10.30am to 11.45am this Thursday.

Residents are being encouraged to

There will be tea and cake available and a selection of relevant books on display.

A representative of the Eastside Community Heritage '50 Years of Fashion' project, will also be attending to gather some oral histories from people about their fashion memories from the 1960s onwards.

The Valence Day anniversary exhibition will be held on Saturday, June 27.

Apart from being a one-time manor house built in 1280, the museum, in Wellbone Lane, has been used as a family home, town hall and headquarters of the library service.

WIN VIP TICKETS TO GALA OPENING NIGHT OF FILM FESTIVAL

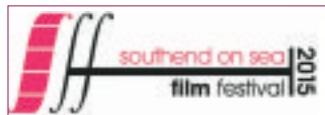

Get ready to mingle with stars on the red carpet

AGE of Kill, a fast-paced, new thriller featuring a host of British stars will raise the curtain on the seventh Southend-on-Sea Film Festival and your Yellow Advertiser has a pair of money-can't-buy tickets to give away to mingle with the stars.

The celebrity packed gala opening night, on Thursday, May 21, at Southend's Odeon cinema kickstarts five days of films at the Park Inn Palace Hotel.

Martin Kemp (The Krays, EastEnders) plays Sam Blake a sniper forced to murder six, seemingly random people in six hours to save his kidnapped daughter, who later realises the murders are part of a political coup and attempts to unmask the kidnappers.

The cast also includes Phil Davis (Poldark, Whitechapel), Nick Moran and Dexter Fletcher (both from Lock, Stock and Two Smoking Barrels), and Patrick Bergin (Patriot Games, Sleeping with the Enemy).

More than 40 films, old and new from across the globe in a variety of genres, will be screened over the five days; from 1965 Christopher Lee classic The Face of Fu Manchu to box office hit Paddington, plus a programme of talks.

Eight UK Independent feature films and 12 shorts are either World or UK premieres, including gritty and atmospheric thriller Still – a UK premiere starring Aiden Gillen (Littlefinger in Game of Thrones) at the closing gala.

THRILLER: Martin Kemp stars in Age of Kill which opens the Southend Film Festival

For more information visit www.southendfilmfestival.com.

To win a ticket for you and a friend to the gala opening night on Thursday, May 21, including a pre-drinks reception, the screening of Age of Kill plus short film, Eva's Legacy, and an after-show party at the Park Inn Palace Hotel, just answer the following question.

Q: Martin Kemp appeared in which television soap?

A: EastEnders

B: Coronation Street

C: Emmerdale

To enter the competition telephone your answer – A, B or C – to (0901 307 1662) along with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YAFILEM (space followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 51p from a BT landline.

Calls from other networks may vary and from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, text EXIT at the end of your message.

Lines close on Thursday, May 14. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged. Service Provider: JMedia UK Limited, SW4 7BX. Tel: 020 7720 7130.

T&Cs: Winners must be over 18 to attend the black tie event and collect their tickets from the ticket desk at the start of the pre drinks reception, at Victoria Shopping Centre next to the Odeon Cinema, at 6.30pm.

The screening will take place at 8pm and after show party from 10pm. Travel to and from the events is not included.

Discover medieval history at country house

A SERIES of lunchtime talks will be held at Eastbury Manor House, Eastbury Square, Barking, this month.

Among the highlights is a session on medieval history on Thursday, May 21, which explores why we dance around a Maypole, the history of the Green Man and why Robin Hood pops up in May Day Celebrations.

Tickets are free with a £2 concession for residents of Barking and Dagenham.

Advance booking is required on 020 8227 2331 or visit Eastbury Manor House.

Union under fire in refuse drivers' row

BARKING and Dagenham Council has reached agreement with two of the three trade unions involved in a dispute over refuse drivers' overtime after three days of talks.

The settlement involves a reduction in overtime from 30 minutes to 15 and a one-off goodwill payment of £500 net for the average driver.

The start date for implementation has been put back from July until November as part of the deal.

There was also an assurance from the council that the refuse drivers' terms and conditions would not be looked at again over the two-year life of the budget.

Deputy leader of the council and cabinet member for finance, Cllr Dominic Twomey, praised all sides involved in the negotiations.

He said: "The talks with Unison and Unite were constructive, with both sides having to give little."

But Cllr Twomey was critical of the third union and accused them of looking to secure a deal that was unrealistic.

He said: "The GMB wants a £5,000 one-off payment for each driver plus 20 minutes' overtime, which is clearly irresponsible at a time when we have to make significant savings and is not in the best interest of our residents.

"It would cost the council £690,000 in one-off payments alone when we have to make £39million savings over the next two years.

"There is no way we will let the GMB hold us or our residents to ransom. That £690,000 is the same as funding two big children's centres and all our satellite centres or one of our flagship libraries – Dagenham or Barking Learning Centre – or two of our smaller ones."

The GMB union claims its members stand to lose £1,000-a-year.

- LONDON AMBULANCE Service has been recognised as one of the most gay-friendly healthcare organisations in the country.

Charity Stonewall's Healthcare Equality Index report placed the service in the top 10.

The service was judged on how well it meets the needs of lesbian, gay and bisexual patients, carers and their families.

It was rated the sixth highest NHS organisation on the list and is the only NHS ambulance trust on it.

- MORE than 1,000 people spoke to officers at a police engagement day organised by Barking and Dagenham Safer Neighbourhoods Teams.

They held 76 separate activities to meet their communities and officers signed up 91 people wishing to be emailed with details of events happening in the borough, crime prevention advice and information about policing.

Religious establishments and primary schools were visited by newly-appointed officers who will maintain regular contact, providing support when required.

- BARKING and Dagenham Council is holding a VE Day ceremony today (Friday) with two minutes' silence at the Job Drain VC statue, outside Broadway, Barking, to mark the moment the Second World War ended in Europe 70 years ago.

The service starts at 3pm.

The Wright way for Haven Hospice

REALITY TV star Mark Wright has asked guests at his coming wedding to make donations to a children's hospice.

The Only Way is Essex actor is to wed Coronation Street actress, Michelle Keegan, later this month at a Tudor mansion in Bury St Edmunds, Suffolk.

He has written to family and friends specifying that they donate to Haven House children's hospice, in Woodford Green, in lieu of gifts, to support the hospice's vital work with local life-limited children and families.

Haven House ambassador Mark said; "It's somewhere I've visited and somewhere that's close to mine and Michelle's heart, so we're getting everyone to donate to the charity."

In the run up to the wedding, Mark, 28, is captaining a celebrity football match at the hospice on Sunday, May 17.

Haven House chief executive, Mike Palfreman, said "We're delighted that Mark has chosen to support the charity as part of his upcoming wedding plans and will also be playing in our celebrity football match so close to the big day – it really shows his commitment to his role as ambassador."

"On behalf of everyone at Haven House, we hope that Mark and Michelle have a truly wonderful day."

Eesha wins school's poster competition

A SCHOOLGIRL has won a poster competition designed to promote walking to school.

Eesha Ruparelia's winning design has been printed on a banner outside her school, Avanti Court Primary School, in Carlton Drive, Ilford.

The five-year-old beat hundreds of other schoolchildren from across the borough.

Reception teacher Deepa Patel said: "We took part in a walk to school competition that took place in many schools across Redbridge."

"The competition was to get children to design a banner to encourage parents and children to walk to school. We were one of the chosen schools in Redbridge to be selected for the winning design and it has now been made into a large banner to be placed outside the school gates."

Eesha's winning design will be seen on banners outside other schools across Redbridge.

rescue operations in Kathmandu.

The officers are part of the 67-strong International Search and Rescue team, which is made up of teams from fire and rescue services across Britain who can be deployed to disasters around the globe on behalf of the UK government.

An earthquake occurred on Saturday, April 25, with a magnitude of 7.8.

More than 6,000 people are feared to be dead.

As well as personnel, the team have deployed with 14.5 tonnes of equipment including specialised cameras and acoustic and seismic listening equipment that detects people, even when they are buried under large quantities of rubble.

Four specially-trained search dogs and their handlers also form part of the UK deployment and will assist in locating casualties.

A JAZZ concert is coming to Chingford, Chingford.

The songs of Peggy Lee and the music of Duke Ellington are to be performed by the Benny Goodman Quartet in Chingford Assembly Hall, off Station Road, on Friday, May 29.

The show, organised by The National Jazz Archive, includes vocals and trumpet from Georgina Jackson and Pete Long on clarinet and reeds.

Both musicians have performed at London Soho's prominent jazz club, Ronnie Scott's.

Backing is to be provided by Trevor Jones on piano, Anthony Kerr on vibes, Dave Chamberlain on bass and Richard Pite on drums.

This concert is one of a series during 2015 to raise funds to support the work of the National Jazz Archive, and is staged in conjunction with the Jazz Repertory Company, the people behind 'Benny Goodman and Glenn Miller at Carnegie Hall' and '100 Years of Jazz in 99 Minutes'.

The concert starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost £17.

Time to call in the Glam squad

WHETHER you want to get glammed up, improve your look with professional cosmetic treatments or stage the ultimate party there is only one way to go – the Epping way.

The borough has everything you are looking for from professional salons to beauty clinics, each of which offer a wide range of specialist services, bespoke treatments and the latest products.

What's more, with a local company specialising in bar and staff hire, as well as everything else involved in putting on the perfect event, you have the perfect excuse to show off your new look.

Here are just some of the fantastic businesses in the area:

SO GLAM

So Glam is a stylish boutique salon in the heart of Epping offering a full compliment of hairdressing and beauty services.

Its stylist and colour technicians use their expertise and knowledge of the latest techniques to create a look just for you. You can also enjoy expert care and bespoke treatments from a highly trained team of beauty and aesthetic specialists.

What's more, So Glam offers the highest quality services at affordable prices so everyone can benefit from what it has to offer. The boutique salon also prides itself on keeping clients up to date with the latest treatments and products.

■ For further information call So Glam, at 217 High Road, Epping, on 01992 570177. You can also find out more by following them on Twitter at @SoGlamEssex.

BEAUTY CENTRE CLINICS

Beauty Centre Clinics offer a caring environment as well as professional cosmetic treatments to patients.

Staff are passionate about their work and believe in providing the latest and most advanced methods of treatments to all their clients.

Established 14 years ago by a Harley Street surgeon and an experienced GP, Beauty Centre Clinics is expert in helping you to rejuvenate, enhance and maintain natural and youthful appearance with its range of non-invasive treatments.

Skin specialists at the clinic at 160 High Street, Epping, provide a full assessment before advising on the best and most affordable plan and post procedural treatments to suit your needs.

■ For further information, or to book a free consultation, call 01279 771624 or 07947 496383, or visit the website at beautycentreclinics.com.

THE BAR PEOPLE

The Bar People is an all-round, professional management company based in Essex which specialises in bar and staff hire.

As it knows only too well organising an event can be tiring and challenging, as well as time consuming, which is why it can offer an expert solution to help you put on a successful event, from start to finish. Its job is to keep your guests topped up so you can relax and enjoy the party, as well as assist you every step of the way when it comes to the food, music and pretty much anything else.

■ For further information about all its services visit www.thebarpeople.co.uk or call Jake on 07557 402200 or email him at jake@thebarpeople.co.uk.

You bring the people and they will bring the bar.

AGELESS ME NOW

INSTANTLY Ageless is an amazing powerful anti-wrinkle microcream that works quickly and effectively to diminish the visible signs of ageing.

The revolutionary ingredient is argireline, a peptide that works like botox – without the needles.

Instantly Ageless revives the skin and minimises the appearance of fine lines and pores for a flawless finish, so you can look 10 years younger in two minutes with results lasting up to 10 hours, making it a perfect touch for a night out, special daytime occasion or even a business meeting.

Prepare to be amazed – your skin will love you for it.

Ageless Me Now.com is looking for more distributors to help market this incredible product, which would be a great opportunity for a stay-at-home mum or someone just looking to earn an extra income, and you can sign up for just under £24.

■ Anyone interested in becoming a distributor, or any beauticians, hairdressers and nail technicians looking to stock this quirky, fab product for their customers, can visit www.agelessmenow.com, email agelessmenow@outlook.com, call 07960 900047, or find out more on Facebook at instantly agelessnowuk or on Instagram at agelessmenow.

Vehicle theft driven down

By Chris Russon

VEHICLE thefts in Britain have fallen to the lowest level in the past 10 years, according to figures released by the Office for National Statistics.

Last year, 69,547 vehicles were reported stolen in England and Wales, a drop of 1.2 per cent compared with 2013, and a fall of 70 per cent when compared to the 231,323 vehicles taken in 2004.

With more than 36million vehicles on the country's roads the latest figures represent a theft rate of just 0.2 per cent.

Motor industry trade body, the Society for Motor Manufacturers and Traders, said that the huge drop was down to the introduction of better car security measures such as immobilisers and the use of tracking systems.

Mike Hawes, SMMT chief executive, said: "Thanks to significant investments by car manufacturers in the latest security systems, vehicle thefts across England and Wales are at the lowest levels for decades."

"We are, however, calling for better tracking of how different vehicles are stolen so that we have an accurate understanding of how criminals are operating and can develop future technology to eradicate vehicle crime."

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A Box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

O'S DOWN!

Orient relegated to League 2 after disappointing draw

Leyton Orient

Swindon Town 2 Leyton Orient 2
By Rowland Lyons

at the County Ground

FABIO Liverani's Leyton Orient can look forward to trips to League Two footballing outposts such as Accrington Stanley and Carlisle next season after suffering relegation heartbreak following a draw at 10-man Swindon Town on Sunday.

The results involving the other strugglers proved only academic.

The O's did everything they could to ensure survival against the Robins who had keeper Tyrrell Belford dismissed for a foul.

But Orient didn't help their cause with a Lloyd James penalty miss, before Dean Cox and Chris Dagnall scored. Anton Rodgers and Andy Williams levelled after the break.

Against a weakened Robins starting 11, with only two recognised first teamers, the O's made a positive start but were unable to beat third choice gloveman Belford until the 18th minute when a rush of blood saw him upend a clean-through James in the penalty area.

The unfortunate keeper was then shown a straight red card before Josh Cooke stepped aside for ex-Southend loanee Cameron Belford to step into the breach.

James then stepped up but Belford guessed right and pulled off a fine 22nd minute low save to frustrate the thousand-plus travelling Orient support.

Now enjoying numerical superiority, the O's dominated and finally edged ahead five minutes from the break when Cox dispossessed Raphael Rossi-Brando and fired home from 10 yards.

The O's doubled their lead two minutes into the second-half when Dagnall hit his first goal in 10 games from a cruel rebound after Belford had done well to deny Jay Simpson.

Straight from the restart Cox saw a spectacular effort bounce back off the crossbar.

Swindon then pulled a goal back on 61 minutes when John Swift teed up Rodgers, who beat the under-worked Alex Cisak with a spectacular lofted drive. The Robins then enjoyed their best spell of the game with Williams shooting agonisingly across the face of the Orient goal, before the classy Swift was inches over connecting with a Jack Bartham cross.

Swindon's domination paid off five minutes from time when Williams's penalty, following a Luke O'Neill foul, sealed the O's fate.

Liverani was once again left to face the music and admitted: "The objective initially was to avoid relegation. But, it didn't go that way. When a club is relegated, everyone is responsible for what happened. As the manager I'm more responsible than anyone. It is a very sad day for me today."

Skipper Nathan Clarke added:

"The players are obviously gutted and the dressing room is down at the moment. We're pretty frustrated, but the season wasn't down to just this one game. It just hasn't happened for us this season. We got off to a poor start – and it has affected certain people and we have never been able to recover. We've been on the back foot for periods of the season and we have been unable to deal with certain teams."

Orient owner Francesco Beccetti, who only took control last July, is already rumoured to be considering selling the club following their relegation.

Non-league round-up

Brentwood promoted

by Brian Jeeves

BRENTWOOD Town produced a fantastic performance to win their Ryman League One North play-off final 5-0 against local rivals Thurrock at the Brentwood Arena.

Alex Akrofi grabbed a hat-trick, while Robbie Rees and Sherwin Stanley were also on target, with all the goals coming in an extraordinary second period.

Elsewhere Barking lifted the Gordon Brasted Memorial Trophy after an entertaining 4-2 win over Clapton at Burnham Ramblers' Leslie Field ground. Joe Staunton, Ben O'Brien, Tom Jeffes and Glen Golby ensured the trophy when back to Mayesbrook Park, James Briggs and Jake Stevens grabbed consolations for the Toms.

Clapton will once again be in the hunt for silverware when they face Bowers & Pitsea at Burroughs Park, home of Great Wakering Rovers, on Sunday in the Essex Senior League Cup Final.

In the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League there was a clutch of goals. Brett Munyard (2) and Ross Webster were on target for Premier Division Rayleigh Town, who saw off Frenford Senior by three goals to nil. And there was a resounding 6-0 win for Newbury Forest against struggling Southminster St Leonards.

In Division One Old Southendian and Gallywood played out a six-goal thriller at Warners Park with the visitors eventually running out 4-2 winners. While in Division Two, Reece Conway hit a brace and Tommy Barton also found the net as Basildon Town won 3-1 at Snaresbrook.

Cowley quits Concord

DANNY Cowley, the most successful manager in Concord Rangers' history, has quit the club to link up with Vanarama Conference Premier Outfit Braintree Town.

Cowley, 36, had been in charge at the Aspect Arena for eight years, leading the club to three promotions, six domestic cups and notably oversaw his team's heroic FA Cup run, in which they took Sky Bet League Two side Mansfield Town to a replay.

Cowley links up with the Iron on an initial two-year deal after former West Ham United midfielder Alan Devonshire decided against renewing his contract.

Snooker

Bingham crowned world champion

BASILDON'S Stuart Bingham is the new Betfred World Snooker Champion after he beat Shaun Murphy by 18 frames to 15 at The Crucible in Sheffield on Monday.

It was only the second time that 38-year-old Bingham had made it past round two in the competition.

He defeated Ronnie O'Sullivan and Judd Trump on his way to the final.

His opponent, Murphy, won the title in 2005.

Bingham's family were on hand to join in the celebrations as he received the trophy and a cheque for £300,000.

He is the oldest world champion since Ray Reardon defeated Perrie Mans in 1978 at the age of 45.

Noble spot on at last for Hammers

West Ham United

West Ham United 1 Burnley 0
Brian Jeeves reporting from Upton Park

MARK Noble's first half penalty earned West Ham a rare Barclays Premier League victory at Upton Park and almost certainly condemned 10-man Burnley to Championship football next season.

Frustrated Hammers supporters arrived at Upton Park hoping to see their charges end a four-match winless run which had seen them slip to 11th in the table. The second half of this season has seen West Ham pick up maximum points on just two occasions since the turn of the year, something manager Sam Allardyce was keen to put right.

The east Lancashire outfit have gleaned a clutch of admirers by playing an open brand of football.

However, a lack of firepower has seen the Clarets fail to find the net in five matches.

West Ham started brightly and came close to an early breakthrough.

The on-rushing Enner Valencia was just unable to reach Aaron Creswell's cross, much to the relief of Clarets keeper Tom Heaton who was left exposed by the static Burnley backline.

The home side continued to probe. Kevin Nolan was unable to direct goalwards after Morgan Amalfitano's flag-kick had been knocked on, while at the other end Danny Ings was a whisker away with a crisp effort across Adrian's goal.

Late on, James Collins hooked over from close range while Jason Shackell headed Kouyate's shot off

Soon after Ings passed up a glorious opportunity but headed over from close range.

Just before the half-hour mark Michael Duff was clumsy on the Hammers Senegalese international Cheikhou Kouyate and FA Cup Final referee Jonathan Moss had no hesitation in pointing to the spot then perhaps harshly ordered the Burnley defender off. Noble stepped up to send Heaton the wrong way.

With the bit between their teeth West Ham should have doubled their money. Heaton produced a wonderful one-handed save to deny Valencia after Stewart Downing had displayed wizardry down the right flank.

After the break West Ham were first to display a threat. Nolan turned Carl Jenkinson's low cross just past an upright, while Kouyate's drive from distance was deflected behind.

Ings should have done better as Burnley looked for a foothold, hitting the side netting after cutting in from the right.

Former Upton Park favourite Matthew Taylor came agonisingly close, Adrian turning aside his snapshot with an outstretched foot.

Sub Carlton Cole should have put the result out of Burnley's reach, but his header was wayward following wing play from Downing.

Then Heaton did well to scoop away after Cole found another hole in the Burnley rearguard.

Late on, James Collins hooked over from close range while Jason Shackell headed Kouyate's shot off the line as a second goal continued to elude West Ham.

Afterwards, a satisfied Allardyce said: "The penalty is no doubt, and obviously that penalty for Mark was very important on the basis that the last time we had one was the first game of the season and he missed it."

He added: "We had 27 attempts at goal today, we've only scored one off the penalty, that shows you that we've been a bit lacklustre in front of goal."

On the red card for Duff, Burnley boss Sean Dyche said: "It's a penalty, but I'm amazed it's a sending off."

"It's a real sadness for me that at this stage of the season, in these vital games, I'm speaking about refereeing decisions."

West Ham look to enhance their chances of a top 10 finish when they face Aston Villa at Villa Park on Saturday, kick-off 3pm.

TESTIMONIALS of our Success

"Wonderful job from start to finish. No hassle from Joel when he first visited and brilliant installation, team working in hot conditions. Thank you so much, so happy with the job!"

Mrs Phillips

"Great job and a pleasant experience. Having had bad experiences with home improvement companies in the past it was a relief to deal with Dolphin. No pressure, no messing around, kept us informed at every stage and did a lovely job, our house looks so much better now!"
